#1.00 Hrg re: Motion To Stay Pending Appeal Motion to Stay Order Granting Motion for Summary Judgment on All Claims for Relief Against Defendants Dated December 20, 2024 (Adv. Dkt. No. 62) [Regarding the Property Located at 322 N. June St., Los Angeles, California] Including Actions to Enforce the Order Granting Motion for Summary Judgment Including Order Dated April 10, 2025 to Enforce Order Restoring Possession

Docket 1036

Tentative Ruling:

Appearances required.

The tentative ruling is to deny the request to shorten time and, alternatively, to deny the motion for a stay, for the reasons set forth in Trustee's opposition (dkt. 1042), with the exception of a single one of Trustee's arguments. The tentative ruling is that this Court is not persuaded by the argument that there is no legal basis to stay the Enforcement Order (as defined in the opposition). True, it appears that Rule 8007 (Fed. R. Bankr. P.) does not apply to a non-appealed order. Id. p. 7:16-23. But the tentative ruling is that, although Rule 8007 itself does not apply, this Court nevertheless has discretion to stay the Enforcement Order in furtherance of any stay of the MSJ Order (as defined in the opposition), if this Court were persuaded to stay that order (which this Court is not persuaded to do on the current record).

Alternatively, if this Court were persuaded to grant a stay at all (which it is not, subject to oral argument), the tentative ruling is that any stay would be conditioned on security including a bond. As for the dollar amount and timing related to any such security, the tentative ruling is to require payment of certified funds to Trustee for $10,000.00 as a condition of a stay through 5/31/25 and delivery before that date of a bond for the $1,341,616.63 suggested by Trustee (Opp. dkt. 1042, p. 9:7), plus monthly payments for the value of occupancy in a dollar amount to be determined.

If you are making an appearance, you may do so (1) in person in the courtroom, unless the Court has been closed (check the Court's website for public notices), (2) via ZoomGov video, or (3) via ZoomGov telephone. For
